ORDERS FOR SATURDAY,
SEPTEMBER 28, 1996

Mr. NICKLES. I ask unanimous consent that when the Senate completes its business today, it stand in adjournment until the hour of 10 a.m. on Saturday, September 28; further, immediately following the prayer, the Journal of proceedings be deemed approved to date, the morning hour be deemed to have expired, the time for the two leaders be reserved for their use later in the day, and there then be a period for the transaction of morning business, with statements limited to 5 minutes each.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

PROGRAM

Mr. NICKLES. Following morning business on Saturday, the Senate will be awaiting House action on an omnibus appropriations bill, if produced from negotiations. The Senate may also be asked to turn to consideration of any other items cleared for action. Rollcall votes are therefore possible throughout the day on Saturday. The leadership will attempt to give adequate notice to Members in the event that rollcall votes prove to be necessary.

ADJOURNMENT UNTIL 10 A.M.
TOMORROW

Mr. NICKLES. If there is no further business to come before the Senate, I now ask unanimous consent that the Senate stand in adjournment under the previous order.

There being no objection, the Senate, at 7:54 p.m., adjourned until Saturday, September 28, 1996, at 10 a.m.
